What You Missed in November!

The Greater Oklahoma Postal Customer Council (GO-PCC) conducted their final general membership meeting of the year on November 15th at Metro Technology Business Center in OKC.

The meeting included a questions and answers session that featured panelist Arkansas-Oklahoma District Manager Julie Gosdin, OKC Sr. Plant Manager Sean Walton, President & CEO of the Berkshire Company – South Yarmouth, MA Mark Fallon, and Glenn Swyers, Direct Marketing Integration, The IMAGINE Group, Charlotte, NC. GO-PCC executive board member Mark Naylor served as the moderator. Overall, all rating of the program was excellent and some of the comments included:

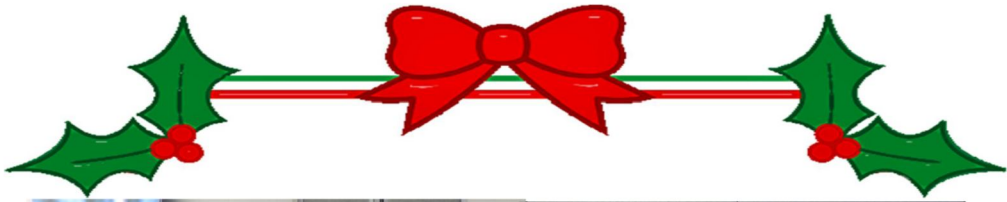

*Great content, thanks for the panel
The speakers offered great insight to the world of mail
Enjoyed hearing from the Oklahoma City Plant Manager*

Industry Co-chair Roy Walker was presented with the GO-PCC Industry of the Year Award. “Roy has been instrumental with growth and success of the GO-PCC, and we appreciate his efforts” said former Industry Co-chair Margaret Vickers.

The GO-PCC hosted their annual Lora Geionety Memorial Toy Drive, and each attendee was asked to consider bringing an unwrapped toy to the meeting. The toys were donated to the Boys and Girls Club of Oklahoma County. They also conducted a food drive to support the Regional Food Bank of Oklahoma in their effort to battle hunger. Long time GO-PCC member, owner and CEO of Presort First Class Joe Vanlaningham presented the Regional Food Bank of Oklahoma and the Boys and Girls Club with a $250 donation for their outstanding contributions within the OK community. “Overall, you guys raised 63 pounds of food, plus $300 raised through your online giving page which all helps provide 1,252 meals to those living with hunger in our state, thank you,” said Abby Muniz; Food & Fund Drive Coordinator.

Postmaster/Postal Co-Chair (A) Marcia Titus went over the contents of the packets which included holiday mailing deadlines, Self -Service Kiosks information and early bird registration to the 2023 National Postal Forum.
